

Are you bored with the same old humdrum of your civilian 'Day Job'?

Are you a Reservist looking for a 'Challenge' and some additional excitement in 2018?

Then look no further.....

The United Kingdom Reserve Forces Association (UKRFA), in partnership with Headquarters North West (HQ NW), will deliver an 'International Tri-Service Military Skills Competition' to be held at ALTCAR Training Camp located in the UK between 07 Sep 18 and 09 Sep 18 and following a long tradition, this exciting competition will be aptly named 'ALTCAR CHALLENGE 2018'.

Due to the historical popularity of this challenging event, limitations of time and available accommodation space, the competition is this year constrained to 35 (4 person) participating junior teams, with 10 of these junior teams also being drawn from the Tri-Service International Reserve community.

How much will it cost my Unit.....?

All costs for team participation in this themed 'Back 2 Basics' event, including transport, subsistence and Reserve Service Days are to be borne by the originating Unit. An entrance fee of £100.00 per team is to be paid by cheque by participating Units to UKRFA prior to the start of competition in order to subsidise presentations and event sundries for participants.

How can we take part.....?

Interested teams, via their own Chain of Command, are requested complete the application form below and submit along with payment direct to UKRFA no later than 31 July 18.
